

Plan for the World

*If you have a plan for the world, how long will it be?
Until you are glorified and sufferings cease?
I long to trust you, I long to do what you say.
But, sometimes this feeling of pain just won't go away.*

So help me, O Lord, to trust.
And help me, O Lord, to just...
Love you.

Sometimes it's hard, so hard to believe,
Things seemed much easier, when they weren't meant to be.
I cannot understand, why you allow what you do.
How it can be part of your plan, and bring glory to You?

*If you have a plan for the world, how long will it be?
Until you are glorified and sufferings cease?
I long to trust you, I long to do what you say.
But, sometimes this feeling of pain just won't go away.*

So help me, O Lord, to trust.
And help me, O Lord, to just...
Love you.

I long for experience, to call on when I'm down.
I long to say "Great is your Faithfulness" when no-one's around.
In public I'm great; inside I'm a mess.
I'm crying behind the scenes while claiming I'm blessed.

*If you have a plan for the world, how long will it be?
Until you are glorified and sufferings cease?
I long to trust you, I long to do what you say.
But, sometimes this feeling of pain just won't go away.*

So help me, O Lord, to trust.
And help me, O Lord, to just...
Love you.

I must choose to trust – Trust in what I know.
In your death on the cross.
Not the feelings I have now.

*'Cause you have a plan for the world and it won't be long,
Until you return and the earth erupts into song.
You'll sweep away evil, your people will be set free.
The earth will be new and you'll reign for eternity.*

So help me, O Lord, to trust.
And help me, O Lord, to just...
Love you.
